ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On August 2, 2001, this administrative court issued an Order Concerning Petitioner's Failure To File Notices Of Infraction in the captioned matters. The order required the Government to file within five (5) calendar days of the service date of this order the administrative court's copies of the captioned Notices of Infraction and their accompanying Certificates of Service, or, in the alternative, a statement indicating why no such copies can now be filed, together with certifications of service verifying the address to which the original Notices of Infraction were served and the date on which they were served.

The order also provided that failure to comply, absent a showing of good cause, would result in the dismissal without prejudice of the captioned Notices of Infraction for want of prosecution. See SCR-Civil 41(b).

The allotted time having now passed without submission from the Government, it is hereby ORDERED this ____ day of _____, 2001, that Notices of Infraction 00-30229, 00-30238, 00-30239 and 00-30240 are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.
